With the help of her guides and Masters, Rose will elaborate on the teachings and take the wisdom to deeper levels. As Rose tunes in, new Ascension teachings will come through, the group will receive higher insights, activations and initiations through meditation and lecture; everyone will be taken to new levels regardless of their present level.

This is a transformational workshop, the group will receive healing, new tools and techniques for personal growth and growth on the physical, spiritual and emotional (psychological) levels. Lives may change, so be prepared to access your highest potential and dissolve energies that hold you from achieving your highest potential. Come with an open heart and open mind to experience what is available to you at this time.

Rose Sangregorio

Rose lives in Calgary, Canada. Her personal life like many others was family life and a successful career, but when she turned 30 her life changed dramatically. This caused her to investigate the nature of the human mind and the structure of life and spirituality. She worked systematically and disciplined herself, and thereby retrieved and the special gifts she was born with.

Rose has shared her gifts and teachings around the world (United States, Hong King, United Kingdom, Denmark, Ireland & India) in non-dualistic spiritual understanding and personal development. She is considered a pure and clear Conscious Channel, a skilful healer as well as a dynamic and inspiring spiritual teacher. She has developed her own special training programs and has the ability to receive and pass on spiritual information and healing, and to coach and guide people on their personal process in opening to their highest potential and consciousness. Through this they can connect to their own true identity and source.
